

Zions Announces Management Change

Chuck Maynard

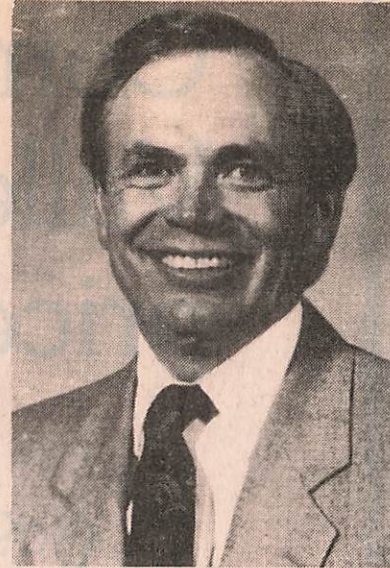

Chuck Maynard is leaving Zions Bank after nearly 15 years of dedicated service. He has set up his own financial services company called CLM Services located at 30 North Main in Heber City. Chuck started with Zions in 1975 as a loan adjuster at the Provo Region Office. After various promotions, he came to Heber in 1978 as an assistant manager and then was appointed manager in November of 1979.

His new company will offer a variety of financial services ranging from real estate related transactions to personal and business financial advising as well as computer related services. After submitting his resignation Dec. 1, 1989, Zions embarked on a four week search to find a replacement. Many qualified applicants were reviewed and Jerry Guymon, of Midway, was selected.

Jerry V. Guymon is a resident of Midway, with his wife Pamela and six children, but was born in Bountiful and graduated from Bountiful High School. He also attended Utah State University and the University of Utah.

He brings 20 years of banking experience to the people and businesses of Wasatch County, most recently as vice president and manager of Valley Bank and Trust in Orem. He has served as chairman of the the Utah Bankers Agricultural Committee; president of the Utah County Bankers Association; Secretary of the Central Utah Group Robert Morris Association; and Director of Parks Sportsman. He also is president elect of the Kiwanis Club, secretary of the Cedar City Exchange Club, and has been a volunteer for the American Cancer Society and the United Way of Utah County.

Jerry Guymon

As a local resident and businessman, with personal interest in the economic success of Wasatch County, Mr. Guymon plans to contribute to economic growth and success, by providing professional financial advice and services to local businesses and individuals.

The public is invited to an open house, to say farewell to Mr. Maynard and welcome Mr. Guymon, Jan. 10, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m., at Zions First National Bank, 81 East Center Street, Heber City.

Jerry V. Guymon
Assistant Vice President Manager

Zions
First National Bank
Heber Valley Office
Heber City, Utah

Telephone 654-2772
SL Line 524-4884